

Cora D. Wright, Assistant Director

Austin Parks and Recreation Department

Cora Wright holds a Bachelor's of Science degree from Texas Women's University, Denton, Texas and a Master of Education degree from the University of Texas @ Austin. Currently appointed, Assistant Director of the Austin Parks and Recreation Department, Wright provides executive oversight of several divisions and critical department functions— Financial Services Division including Grants & Contract Management, Office of Internal Review, Technology & Information Systems, Office of Special Events & Facility Reservations, the Austin Park Ranger Division, and Park Development Administration (including Public-Private Partnerships and Volunteer Services).